THE GARDEN OF MEMORIES

16 Barrow Place, Lyons, ACT

This 60-year-old garden on a large block at the very top of Lyons is under renewal. With an eclectic mix of old and new plants, fruit trees and Australian natives, it is building on the original garden and creating new vignettes. New paths weave through spaces including a fire pit, a shady woodland and an open sunny paved area, all with sweeping views.

BAKER GARDEN

20 Wells Garden, Griffith, ACT

Established 16 years ago, this gardener's garden is designed for colour and interest all year round. It includes sculptures, stone walls and bird baths. A productive area is hidden behind a lattice while pine bark mulch, drippers and no lawn make it a low maintenance garden. Recent modifications, such as removing hedges and adding handrails, have made the garden easier to manage for its two 80-year-old owners.

ELS' GARDEN

3 Ramage Place, Flynn, ACT

This will be your last chance to visit Els' garden as the owners are leaving their much-loved property later this year. Situated on a quarter-acre block, the area has been transformed over 45 years and now accommodates close to 200 species of mainly Australian plants. Carefully selected planting in the front provides colour and privacy. To the rear a creek feeds a pond, while a patio captures the morning sun.
